

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS – CONCURRENT SESSIONS ON EVIDENCE

University of Prince Edward Island, Charlottetown, PEI

AUGUST 20 – CONCURRENT SESSIONS

UPDATING THE EVIDENCE - PRESENTATIONS AND CONVERSATION

On August 20, from 1:30 – 3:00 pm, five concurrent sessions will be offered in thematic areas (to be determined based on the abstracts submitted). Each session will feature three presenters who will have 15 minutes to share evidence that complements and adds to our understanding of supportive environments for child and youth mental health. Presentations will be followed by general discussion on the following questions:

- How does this work fit into and advance the ASI Call to Action? (see updated Call for Action at www.asi-iea.ca)
- What are the implications for upstream investment and a whole society approach to mental health promotion?

Results of these discussions will be included in the final plenary session on August 21st.

Community-based or academic researchers are invited to present evidence from diverse sources such as traditional research, evaluation of promising practices, and narratives of lived experience.

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

We invite submissions that provide evidence related to policies and programs that foster supportive environments for child and youth mental health, and where people work collaboratively to address universal (for all) and targeted (vulnerable groups and those at higher-risk) approaches to promoting child and youth mental health across diverse sectors and in key settings including: home, schools, colleges, communities, geographic regions, online, and health services. Themes will be determined once abstracts have been selected.
